Robert's presentations are ideal for every age group, from high school and college students, to Middle Americans and financial professionals. His charismatic and humorous style allows his audiences to get educated in an entertaining way and he creates a memorable experience that touches both the mind and the heart. With thought provoking insights, vivid stories, and a frequent dose of humor, he reaches his audiences in a way they do not forget.

His presentations are comfortable and enlightening because he helps people see the solutions for financial success through their own personal experiences and beliefs. In this manner he provides not only guidance but also the necessary motivation to help people achieve the financial life they deserve.

Financial Planning Without Numbers:

Empowering presentation that helps participants go from spending mode to savings mode and stop living paycheck-to-paycheck. As a powerful alternative to traditional budgeting, this presentation helps participants take their financial lives to a deeper level by redirecting their financial energy onto why they spend instead of how much they spend. Explore your financial past, find out why you're not where you should be, and get back on track.

5 Most Important Financial Things They Don't Teach You In School:

Life changing presentation that helps high school and college students get ready for the financial world. This interactive presentation covers critical financial concepts including how to increase your income, stand out in the crowded job market, start saving, investing, and the importance of credit and a good credit score.

The Truth About Investing And Financial Professionals:

Eye-opening presentation for consumers on what to ask a financial professional, what to look out for, and how to spot unscrupulous sales tactics that can cause years of financial pain. Learn how to start investing on your own, when you should hire a financial professional, and how to fix common investment mistakes.

Speaking packages allow sponsoring organizations to co-brand books and presentation materials with custom logos, personalized messages printed inside the books, and PDF files that can drive traffic to your website.
